VERAMENDI

TRUE TEXAS HILL COUNTRY LIVING

Veramendi is a new master-planned community nestled in the historic city of New Braunfels. It is ideally located within the Central Texas growth corridor between Austin and San Antonio. Veramendi is steeped in tradition and history with the first recorded landowner, Juan Martin de Veramendi receiving a land grant from the Mexican Government in 1823. Veramendi offers historic small town charm, family friendliness with a wide variety of home and lifestyle choices, but with big city shopping and convenience.

Combining the rich history and local tradition of the current landowners, the Word Borchers family with the leadership of Australian developer partners ASA Properties, Veramendi is redefining community living in the Texas Hill Country through its offering of a vibrant and dynamic lifestyle that incorporates the elements of live, work, learn and play.

MARKET SNAPSHOT

- New Braunfels is now the nation's second-fastest growing city with a population of 50,000 or more, according to the U.S. Census Bureau.
- 2017 total population is 79,152, an 8% increase from 2016.
- Since 2010, the total population has increased by 36%.
- Comal County, in which New Braunfels lies, was recently ranked the 7th fastest growing large county in the US Census Bureau.
- Such growth is attributed to its location on IH35 in between two of the fastest growing metropolitan areas in the nation, Austin and San Antonio.
- Commercial building permits set a new record in 2015. The City approved 7,605 new lots in 2017
- Highly rated public and private schools, including the new Veramendi Elementary which opened in 2017
- In 2017, Money Magazine picked New Braunfels as the country's best retirement locale for "encore workers".

NEW BRAUNFELS

New Braunfels, Texas, presents a unique and active lifestyle while offering proximity to the metropolitan areas of San Antonio and Austin.

- A number of artesian springs feed the Comal River, which winds through the City before meeting the larger Guadalupe River.
- The area is one of the best leisure destinations in Texas with numerous local offerings such as “toobing” on local rivers, small town character and charm, and popular destinations such as historic downtown New Braunfels, Schlitterbahn Water Park and Gruene.
- Since 2000, the city’s population has grown by over 90% with an annual job growth rate of 3.2%.
- New Braunfels has a diversified base of employment in both private and public sectors - tourism is one of the most significant drivers of the local economy.
- Other key employment sectors within the region include manufacturing, health care, aviation, logistics, and distribution.

AUSTIN-SAN ANTONIO GROWTH COORIDOR

Veramendi is located in the Texas Hill Country, just 33 miles from downtown San Antonio and 49 miles to the State capitol in Austin.

- The region has experienced 58% population growth over the past decade.
- San Antonio – Texas' 2nd largest city – has an economy focused on finance, tourism and health sectors with a strong military concentration.
- The San Antonio-New Braunfels Metropolitan Area has a population of 2 million people and is the 4th fastest growing metro area in Texas.
- Austin – the State capitol – has an economy focused on government, education and technology, with growth in the pharmaceuticals and biotechnology industries.
- This region has been one of the most economically stable regions in the US over recent years.
- Forbes rated Austin and San Antonio as the #1 and #4 “boom” towns in the US. The Nation's cities were ranked considering job growth, family formation, education, population growth and general attractiveness to immigrants. Texas provided 4 of the top 7 cities on the list.
